DISCOVER FRANCE – THIRD EVENT OF SERIES CELEBRATES LE VIN Spend a Night in Paris Without Leaving Midtown

Atlanta (April 20, 2006) – It's not much of a leap from the word "French" to words like "wine," "food" and "taste." The soiree will feature wine and food pairings, French musique, fresh air and a comfy cognac sipping room - all inspired by the wonders of France. Discover France also benefits Angel Flight of Georgia, an organization dedicated to providing free air transportation for people who have a medical need that cannot be filled in their local area.

WHAT: The third in the series of "Discover" Wine events produced by the Atlanta Wine School, Discover France features wines from the many vital regions of France. A selection of cheeses, breads, charcuterie, hors d'oeuvres and desserts will be provided to enhance the enjoyment of each wine. This all-inclusive event will take place under la Grande Tente overlooking Piedmont Park. C'est magnifique!

WHO: Discover France combines the wine expertise of Michael Bryan, founder of Atlanta Wine School with the marketing and event savvy of Andi Frey, president of Launch Atlanta. Bryan and Frey have chosen Angel Flight of Georgia as the beneficiary for this event.

Angel Flight of Georgia believes that the cost of travel should never stand in the way of receiving medical care. This non-profit organization takes flight to get people to the hope of lifesaving treatment and all of its services are free!

WHY: Bryan and Frey look forward to benefiting Angel Flight of Georgia and helping the organization reach its goal of providing complimentary transportation to medical patients and families. Bryan created the "Discover" events in order to highlight the variety of wine regions throughout the world. Previous events have included Discover Chile and Discover Italy. For Discover France, Bryan and Frey have selected a beautiful location that will make this intown wine event rival the French countryside.
