Good Wines, NOT Good Values

Bouchard Pere & Fils "Le Corton" 2002 France >$20
 Burgundian sour cherry, light-bodied, musty nose, slightly bitter & anemic—sorry, for $70 I demand more

Amour de Deutz Blanc de Blancs Brut Champagne 1995 France >$20
 Hey, isn't this the champagne you gave your 3 day-old to christen her lips to your favorite beverage? True, and I'll never forget it. But stepping back, and objectively evaluating this lovely champagne with its $150 price tag, I'll pick up something different next time.

Losers

Hard to come across wines with absolutely nothing to offer, but here is a qualifier:
 Chateau La Croix de Grezard, Lussac-St. Emilion 2000 France <$20
